FACTS SUPPORTING PROBABLE CAUSE:

I: Between May 19, 2009 and September 18, 2010, Steven Carroll DeMocker, pursuant to a scheme or artifice to defraud, created and presented a fraudulent story involving fictitious witnesses to the murder of his ex-wife, Carol Kennedy. The story involved a voice-in-the-vent that DeMocker claimed had provided evidence about the crime. The story was determined to be false and had been created by DeMocker. Mr. DeMocker, by means of fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises or omissions delivered to his attorney's and prosecutors the false and fictitious story in an attempt to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt.

II: Between May 19, 2009 and September 18, 2010, Steven Carroll DeMocker, pursuant to a scheme or artifice to defraud, created and presented a fraudulent story involving fictitious witnesses to the murder of his ex-wife, Carol Kennedy. The story involved a fictitious e-mail that Mr. DeMocker wrote and later provided as evidence about the crime. The e-mail story was determined to be false and had been created by DeMocker. Mr. DeMocker, by means of fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises or omissions delivered to his attorney's and prosecutors the false and fictitious e-mail in an attempt to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt.

III: Between June 1, 2009 and September 18, 2010, Steven Carroll DeMocker conspired with Charlotte DeMocker and Renee Girard to commit the offense of Fraudulent schemes and artifices (Count II) and agreed that one or both of the other conspirators would engage in conduct constituting the offense. Steven DeMocker provided the fictitious and fraudulent e-mail to Charlotte DeMocker and Renee Girard with the instructions and understanding that one of them would anonymously transmit the document, anonymously to attorney John Sears and to prosecutors (known as the anonymous e-mail). Charlotte did deliver the e-mail anonymously to attorney John Sears and ultimately to the Yavapai County prosecutors. DeMocker perpetrated the conspiracy to deliver the false and fictitious e-mail in an attempt to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt.

IV: On or about June 2, 2009, Steven Carroll DeMocker fraudulently completed an e-mail, a written instrument, and purported it to be authentic.

V: On or about May 19, 2009, Steven Carroll DeMocker fraudulently completed written notes that he reported to be a dictated statement from a witness to the murder of his ex-wife, a written instrument, and purported it to be authentic. Mr. DeMocker had this forged instrument delivered to the Yavapai County Attorney's Office on July 13, 2009, and on July 21, 2009 he verbally told prosecutors and investigators from the Yavapai County Attorney's Office that the document was authentic.

VI: Between May 19, 2009 and September 18, 2010, Steven Carroll DeMocker, pursuant to a scheme and practice to defraud, created and presented to the Yavapai County Superior Court a fraudulent story involving fictitious witnesses to the murder of his ex-wife, Carol Kennedy. The story involved a fictitious e-mail that Mr. DeMocker wrote and later provided as evidence to the court about the crime. The e-mail story was determined to be false and had been created entirely by DeMocker. Mr. DeMocker, by means of fraudulent pretenses, representations, promises or omissions delivered to his attorney's and ultimately to the Superior Court the false and fictitious e-mail in an attempt to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt.

VII: On May 19, 2009 and June 2, 2009, Steven Carroll DeMocker created fictitious evidence related to the murder of his ex-wife, Carol Kennedy, with the intent that it be used, introduced, or contributed as evidence to the Yavapai County Superior Court as evidence to be used in his murder trial to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt. The evidence constituted forged and fictitious notes of a non-existent conversation with a voice-in-the-vent that reportedly provided information about the murder of Carol Kennedy, and an anonymous e-mail that also purported to be authentic evidence from a witness to the murder of Carol Kennedy.

VIII: On or between June 1, 2009 and June 20, 2009, Steven Carroll DeMocker caused encouraged and contributed to the delinquency of Charlotte DeMocker, a minor child, by encouraging her and directing her to commit multiple felonies by delivering fictitious, fraudulent documents (e-mails) to John Sears and to prosecutors in an attempt to influence the outcome of his criminal trial by creating reasonable doubt of his guilt
